

Parliamentary Inquiry into Surrogacy

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES STANDING COMMITTEE ON SOCIAL POLICY AND LEGAL AFFAIRS

Inquiry into surrogacy

The Attorney-General, Senator the Hon George Brandis QC, has asked the House of Representatives Standing Committee on Social Policy and Legal Affairs to conduct an inquiry into surrogacy arrangements for Australians.

The Committee invites you to make a submission which provides your views on any or all of the terms of reference. While the secretariat makes every effort to contact all interested parties, it would be appreciated if you could pass this information on to anyone you think might be interested in making a submission.

The Committee would appreciate your contribution to the inquiry to be received by Thursday 11 February 2016. Please contact the Committee secretariat if by 1 February 2016 if you intend to make a submission.

Further information on the inquiry, including the full terms of reference, can be found on the committee website at www.aph.gov.au/spla. Submissions can be emailed to spla.reps@aph.gov.au or lodged via the Committee website.

Please note that submissions should not include incriminating or personally identifying information. The Committee will exercise final judgement on whether a submission is suitable for publication. For further information about the inquiry, please contact the Committee secretariat on (02) 6277 2358 or spla.reps@aph.gov.au.
